

Peer Review Summary

| | |
|----------------|--|
| Article Title: | |
| Reviewer: | |

| Evaluation Criteria | Observations and Improvement Option |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| 1. The title of the article accurately reflects the content of the document and contains fewer than 15 words. | |
| 2. The abstract describes the objective of the article, the methodology, and the results in less than 200 words. | |
| 3. The problem and justification are addressed in a broad manner in the introduction section. It briefly presents what the reader will find in the document. | |
| 4. The theoretical framework establishes the theories on which the study is based. The literature review establishes the most relevant research on the subject of study. It analyzes trends and gaps in the existing literature.* This criterion applies to articles that have one or another category: theoretical framework or literature review. | |
| 5. The methodology descriptively establishes the type of research, the method and techniques applied. 6. The methodology is consistent with the nature of the study. | |
| 7. The results present the information obtained in a clear manner, specifying the main findings based on the interpretation of the data in light of the theoretical references or the literature review. The document meets the stated objective. | |
| 8. The exposition of ideas is clear, fluid and the style of the document is consistent with the purpose of the text. | |
| 9. The conclusions are based on the results, refer to other studies and are well founded. | |
| 10. The article is an original and important contribution to the field of research on the subject of study. | |

| Evaluation Criteria | Observations and Improvement Option |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| 11. The references presented are related to the topic of the article. The bibliographical references are presented in APA standards version 6.0 Present updated references. Each citation presents its reference and each reference has its corresponding citation. | |
| 12. Others (please explain) | |

Dictamen final:

Acceptance without changes.

Acceptance with minor modifications.

Revision and resubmission with major modifications.

Rejection

| |
|--|
| |
| |
| |
| |

Comments to the editor (optional):

| |
|--|
| |
|--|